RENDEZVO

Henry Miller, Jack Kerouac, and Hunter S. Thompson all considered Big Sur a creative hide-away from civilization. These writers immersed themselves in Big Sur's natural beauty and travelers from all over the world have done the same. The mountainous terrain mixed with the California coasts makes Big Sur a great location for hiking, wildlife viewing and beach sports. Make Big Sur your next outdoor adventure!

Here is a list of the most common activities to do in Big Sur as well as some hot spots that you could see!

Though the name sounds intimidating, Death Valley is a spectacular national park that spans two states, California and Nevada. A ruggedly, beautiful terrain, the park has lot's to see and lot's to offer. Because it is so large there are many different points of interest to visit. Get a tour of Scotty's Castle, a vacation mansion built during the Roaring '20s. There are so many canyons to see from Artist's Drive, to Natural Bridge, to Golden Canyon. Discover the wonders and mysteries that make Death Valley so unique.

Washington DC is a historic and political city. There are so many places to visit from buildings, to monuments, to museums, to landmarks. The metro system makes getting around easy, but the confusing grid quadrants make navigating tricky. If you love politics, visit the Capitol building and the White House. If you're a history buff you could spend days at the Smithsonians alone, let alone the National Archive, or the National Geographic Museum. Spend some time soaking up American history and culture.
